

WESTA NEWSLETTER – Summer 2009

Hello and welcome to WESTA's summer newsletter to help fill that weird void you get between the end and beginning of the next season (Well unless your a Motherwell or Falkirk fan) and highlight up and coming events

Scribblers Picnic 5 a side – Stirling - Sunday 30th August 11am – 4:30pm

Scribbler's Picnic is a Tartan Army 5-a-side tournament organised by Plean Tartan army. It is being held in the grounds of Stirling Rugby Club, as part of the bigger Scribblers Picnic event. The day includes music, side shows & children's activities

Scribbler's Picnic an event to raise money for cancer charities, it was started by Tartan Army stalwart Ted Christopher after one of his close friends passed away after a battle with the disease.

It promises to be a great day out for everyone, WESTA are entering a team in the 5-a-side tournament and looking to take a bus through so we can take many supporters as well

It costs £5 entry to the grounds on the day which WESTA will pay for. Depending on numbers the cost of the bus may be covered also

Andrew Easton is organising the 5-a-side team so if you want to play contact him at andreweaston@hotmail.com

If you are planning to attend please email dangerousdave\_dufc@yahoo.com so we can get the right size bus

日本 v スコットランド

Saturday 10th October 2009

As you will be aware the SFA have taken into account the current economic climate and organised our next away game in Japan! Still it will be a good memory trip for those that were lucky enough to go in 2005 and see Scotland win the Kirin Cup and it has to be said Japan is a truly incredible country and if you are able to afford go for it. Jim Brown is working with Loony Alba on a joint trip, if there are enough people travel agents will throw in a free trip and this will then get divided between all people going to will reduce costs. The trip is planned for 1 week so if you want to go to the F1 GP the week before you will be able to. Email Jim at jim.brown@unitymedia.de if your interested

News flash – KLM sale now on flights from £445 return London - Tokyo

.....And for those of us not going

The U21's are playing a European Championship qualifier against Belarus. The venue for this has yet to be confirmed but U21 games are usually at Kilmarnock or Falkirk

So our tentative plans (as lots has to be confirmed yet) is meet up somewhere at 10am and watch the Scotland v Japan game (again assuming this will be an evening game in Japan) and then run a bus to the U21's game and watch Scotland in a competitive game rather than a meaningless friendly
